RED AND WHITE SQUAD SMASHED ITS WAY THROUGH PRESBYTERIAN OUTFIT FOR FIRST VICTORY OF THE SEASON

Game Ended With Score Standing 32-6 — McGill's Back Division Contributed Greatly To Her Success — Line Rather Weak—Queens Weight Enabled Her To Break Up Formation At Times—Flanagan's Brilliant Kicking A Feature Of Game — Cope, Anderson, Nicholson, Parkins, Russell and Ross Also Starred — Team Entertained Afterwards At a Banquet.

Playing a brilliant game in the back division, the McGill Rugby squad won the first match in the Intercollegiate League on Saturday afternoon, when it defeated the Queen's team at the old grounds at Kingston, by a score of 32 to 6. With the exception of the first quarter, the Red and White squad kept the play continually in the Presbyterian's territory, and after the first twenty minutes the ultimate result of the match was never in doubt. During the last half, perfect kicking by Flanagan forced the play to the Tri-color line, and it was only the strong defence of the Queen's line that prevented McGill from piling up a larger score.

Immediately the game was over, a general melee occurred in which the players and spectators livened matters up for five minutes in scattered groups across the field. The affair commenced over the right of possession of the ball, and after the air had cleared, the McGill squad left the campus with the pigskin, and the difference was forgotten. In the evening the squad was the guest of the Queen's club at a banquet at which good-fellowship reigned supreme.

While the game was not a particularly excellent display of Rugby, the sensational work of the McGill backs and the line plunging of the Queen's men provided plenty of thrills for the two thousand spectators who filled the grandstand and bleachers and swarmed along the sidelines. Time and again the McGill squad carried the play to the Presbyterian territory, only to be held within a few yards of the goal line by the husky front defence of the Tri-color, while at the other end the Queen's team failed to make good its buck due chiefly to the excellent kicking of Flanagan at centre half, who time and again saved dangerous situations by his long punts, which were made more effective by the deadly tackling of the two Red and White outsiders, Gordie Nicholson and "Punch" Parkins, who regularly nailed the player who caught the ball.

During the first quarter, the Queen's squad showed up as a formidable aggregation, its heavy line men continually broke through the lighter McGill line for big gains, and while the Red and White had possession of the pigskin, succeeded in getting around and blocking many of the plays. McKelvey, who was playing at inside wing for the Presbyterians, proved particularly dangerous in this regard, and was frequently the stumbling block of the McGill fourteen. In the second quarter, the Tri-color began to weaken, and the speedy work of Anderson, Flanagan and Russell kept the play well in their opponents' territory, resulting in the Red and White taking a clear lead in the game, which gradually increased as the play continued through the last two quarters. In the final half, the McGill squad relied chiefly on kicking, and to great advantage, for during the final stages the Presbyterians failed to prove dangerous, while the Red and White added 18 points to its score.

McGill's first try came after a series of bucks by Cope, Notman and Wallace, which carried the pigskin to Queen's ten-yard line. The squad failed to make yards on the final buck, and the Presbyterians got possession only to lose it again when Nicholson broke up their play and carried the ball back to the five-yard line. On the first down, Cope went over for a try, which was converted by Flanagan.

Queen's then came through with the feature of the game, when it scored the first try against McGill. Besides being its initial entry into the scoring column of the game, it was also the first time that the Tri-color crossed the McGill line for a try since 1914. Queen's final score came when Flanagan caught the ball behind the line but was forced into the dead area.

Cope duplicated in the second quarter when he went through the middle for a try after a twenty-yard run. It cost him an injury to his leg which necessitated his retirement from the game in the third period. In the third quarter substantial counts were added to the Red and White score by Flanagan, who dropped a neat field goal early in the period, and later, when McKelvey got through and blocked his kick, the speedy centre half dodged around the end and made a fifteen-yard run, putting the ball in the corner where it counted for five. Anderson added another try in the last period, going through the centre of the Queen's scrimmage after a fake pass.

While the Red and White ran up a large score against the Presbyterians, the showing was not all that might have been expected. The back division showed up exceptionally well, but the work of the line-men left much to be desired. Captain "Dud" Ross proved the most effective man in the front line, but the rest were outclassed by their heavier opponents. Queen's proved a disappointment to many of its supporters, who expected great things from the Tri-color this season. Lack of condition weighed heavily against McGill's opponents, which was apparent by the large number of players who took the count at regular intervals throughout the match, resulting in a decided slowing up of the play.

Flanagan was easily the star man on the field, and it was his kicking and running, coupled with the stellar performance of "Boo" Anderson and Jeff Russell, his mates at half, and the work of Ross, Nicholson and Parkins on the line, that, more than anything else, carried the Red and White to victory.

Anderson played his usual, cool, steady game, and in the second half, when he went to quarter, following the enforced absence of Normie Wallace, who was knocked on the head. (Continued on Page 4)

FENCING BRANCH OF B., W. AND F. MEET

Preparations Made For New Hands At the Game.

A meeting of the fencing branch of the B., W. and F. was held in the Union at five o'clock on Friday afternoon. The attendance was not as great as had been expected, but some twenty or twenty-five were present, the majority of them being old hands at the game.

The first business of the meeting was the election of officers. Plans were then made for an active campaign to be carried on in the various faculties to interest new men in fencing. After a discussion of the needs of the club for the coming season and of the choice of an instructor, the meeting came to a close.

An interview with a member of the executive of the Fencing Club revealed the fact that those taking up the sport this year will enjoy unusual opportunities. The lockers have been removed from the walls of the room in the basement of the Union, which was used last year, and a fencing-mat has been laid down. In this way the club will be able to accommodate at least twice as many as those who turned up at Friday's meeting.

As far as equipment is concerned, the club last year procured a fairly adequate supply of bearded masks, while tentative arrangements are being made at present for a stock of fencing jackets. In this way those taking up fencing will only be required to own their own fells, and the executive have succeeded in obtaining a sufficient number of these of the very best make at cost price.

An instructor has not yet been secured, but the authorities have in mind two well-known professionals, one of the French and the other of the Italian school of fencing. In order that no time may be wasted, the first fencing meeting has been called for Tuesday afternoon, at five o'clock, in the basement of the Union. Pending the appointment of an instructor, those fencers who have already had some experience will initiate the newcomers into the first principles of the art. All those interested should make a point of being present at the first meeting. The only equipment required is some clothing, a right-hand glove, a pair of running shoes and a sufficient measure of enthusiasm—the club will look after the other necessities.

A sick-room clock invented in Switzerland has an electric lamp behind a transparent dial, so that when an invalid in bed presses a button the dial throws the shadow of the hours and hands upon the ceiling.

FRENCH SOCIETY PLANS MEETINGS

Cercle Francais Gives Promise Of Go-Ahead Season.

The members of the executive of the Cercle Francais have been laying their heads together for some days past in preparation of the society's plans for the coming season. The "Cercle," as it is generally known, may be regarded as an old-established institution of the University. It was founded over fifteen years ago by a group of enthusiastic linguists, under the honorary presidency of no less a person than the late Sir William Macdonald.

Every year, for a long time past, a number of those desirous of improving their knowledge of French as a spoken language in congenial surroundings, have met from time to time throughout the session to hear papers read on some topic of interest on the French language or literature, and for a discussion afterwards.

It has generally been customary to hold these meetings after an informal supper, and, acting on the principle that the stomach has a vivifying effect on the linguistic brain-centre, the executive have decided to make the informal supper a feature for all the meetings of the forthcoming session. As usual, the harsh tongue of the Sassenach will be banned, and, to use a slang expression, everyone will be encouraged to "make a stab" at speaking the tongue of Moliere and of Anatole France.

The honorary president of the "Cercle" this year is Professor Rene du Roure, of the Department of Modern Languages. Owing to his connection with men high in French literary circles, Prof. du Roure will be able to secure papers from some of these for the Cercle. Some student-talent is also promised in the form of papers on such interesting subjects as "The Language of French Canada."

A meeting will be held some time during the week for the enrolment of new members. Watch the "Notice" column in the "Daily" for further particulars.

THIS MUST CEASE

It is with regret that we learn of a disgraceful incident which took place last Friday night, when a party of irresponsible students rushed a theatre in this city and caused a general uproar which narrowly averted becoming a panic in which lives might have been lost. As it was several of the patrons of the house fainted and others were very much frightened by the rowdiness displayed.

It is indeed unfortunate that the name of McGill, which has stood high in the estimations of most of the residents of Montreal, should be linked up with lawlessness and with conduct more befitting thugs than University students. If there are any students here who regard disturbing the peace of others, interfering with their personal liberty and endangering their lives as fun and frolic they must be of stunted mental growth, and we would be far better without them.

Let the handful of men who were responsible for the affair of Friday night remember, that because of their actions, the whole student body stands convicted in the minds of the public of being an aggregation of rowdies and of "toughs."

Not content with proving themselves more than a nuisance at the theatre in question, the same band of men later disobeyed an important rule of the Union by forcing their way into that building after it had been closed for the night.

The Students' Council feel strongly in this matter and are determined to censure no such tactics as those displayed last Friday night. The few men here who have no moral responsibilities, who would for their own pleasure act in such a manner as to cast discredit on the name of McGill can have no pride in the University and the University is greatly ashamed of them. It is the custom for the Committee of Morals and Discipline to deal with matters such as these, what they will do in the present case we do not know, but we feel sure that few if any voices will be raised in defense of those guilty of last week's perpetration.

THE ARTS SMOKING ROOM

It is generally conceded that students are on the whole a patient race of men. From recent events it would appear that those of the Faculty of Arts are possessed of this virtue to a marked degree. For years they have labored under the disadvantages inherent in an old building with its hopelessly insufficient accommodation. They have had to take their lectures in classrooms constructed in the Early Victorian Era with bad lighting and worse ventilation. The creature comforts afforded them have been few. Among these they once enjoyed the use of a smoking-room.

But during the summer months a vandal hand effaced this cherished possession, and when the Arts men returned at the beginning of this month they found themselves compelled by the statutes of the Faculty to go outside to smoke. They were assured that a suitable room was being prepared. We very recently had an opportunity of seeing this so-called smoking-room. It is still in a partially finished condition and is approximately one third as large as the old one. Furthermore the proposed room is situated at the extreme end of the building almost as far as it possibly could be from the region where most of the lectures are held; in addition to which the interminable series of corridors leading to it is partially blocked by a string of newly-erected lockers, the remainder of which are to be placed around the walls of the proposed king-room.

An interview with a prominent member of the Arts Building Committee brings to light the astonishing fact that the Committee is in no way responsible for these arbitrary changes.

But the Arts students are patient and during the warm days of October they will not complain overmuch at having to go outside the building to smoke. When the cooler weather comes, however, can anyone imagine for a moment that they will be content to crowd into a little space scarcely able to hold the veriest fraction of their numbers?

EDITORIAL NOTE

Saturday saw the 1920-21 sporting season well started for McGill. The Seniors' victory at Queens and the Juniors' triumph at Loyola should promise good things for the rest of the year, if nothing happens. "Shag" has evidently produced another Championship Intercollegiate aggregation, and the Juniors seem quite able to take care of themselves. The season is rather young for drawing conclusions. Varsity has still to be met, and the teams must not diminish their efforts if our football laurels are to be kept at McGill this year, but we have no reason for pessimism.

NOTICES

NEWS BOARD.

There will be an important meeting of the News Board on Tuesday evening at eight p.m. All members are requested to attend.

CONGRESS OF U.S. COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

Opens Tenth Annual Congress To-Night.

NOTED DELEGATES.

Sir Arthur Currie To Open Programme.

The Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons will formally open its tenth annual session to-night, when the presidential meeting will be held in the St. James Methodist Church, at eight o'clock.

During the last few days surgeons have been arriving here from far and wide, the great mass of the delegates being from the United States. Included in the gathering will be many of the most eminent members of the profession in the United States. The presence of several distinguished British surgeons will give an international flavor to the congress.

There will be a distinctly McGill aspect to the convention, as a prominent part will be taken by members of the staff of the Medical Faculty.

Sir Auckland Geddes, who had originally intended to attend to-night's meeting and deliver an address, has been unable to leave Washington, owing to the pressure of his ambassadorial duties.

Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., LL.D., Principal of McGill University will open the programme for to-night, extending a welcome to the delegates.

William J. Mayo, M.D., F.A.C.C., of Rochester, Minn., the retiring president of the American College of Surgeons, will give the next address.

The introduction of Sir B. Moynihan, Sir Wm. Taylor, A. Carless, will then take place.

Sir Berkeley Moynihan is Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery at the University of Leeds. He is the author of many notable works, including "Abdominal Operations," "Gallstones and Their Surgical Treatment," and collaborator in "Diseases of the Stomach," etc.

Sir Wm. Taylor, C.B., of Dublin, is ex-president of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland. He has been consulting surgeon to the forces in Ireland since 1916, and is surgeon to several hospitals. He has written numerous papers on surgery of the stomach, intestinal obstruction, renal surgery, etc.

Albert Carless, C.B.E., M.B., M.S., F.R.C.S., of London, is Professor of Surgery in King's College Hospital, London, Consulting Surgeon to the Eastern Command and to several other hospitals. He is the joint author of a standard Manual of Surgery, which was published in 1898, and reached its tenth edition in 1919.

The inaugural address of the new president will be delivered by George E. Armstrong, M.D., F.A.C.C., Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery at McGill.

Dr. Armstrong is a McGill man to the core. He was born in Leeds, P.Q., educated locally, and received medical degree at McGill, graduating in 1877. Throughout his very successful career he has practised his profession in Montreal. He has written valuable papers on many medical subjects, and was appointed to the professorship which he now holds in 1907. During the Great War, he spent several years of distinguished services with the C.A.M.C.

The final address of to-night's programme will be given by Sir Berkeley Moynihan, C.B., M.S., F.R.C.S., Leeds, who will deliver the John B. Murphy Oration in Surgery.

Mr. A. D. Bailon, who is making his headquarters at the Windsor Hotel, is the business manager of the convention, while Dr. A. T. Bazin is the chairman of the reception committee.

The Association has procured as its office during the convention, one of the rooms in the New Medical Building.

name together with their handicaps both match and medal, or an approximation of the same on regulation links, with the name of the links.

The team will then be chosen and published some days ahead of the date of the match.

Names should please be submitted at an early date. The list will close this evening (Oct. 11th).

FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE.

Nominations for Faculty Representative on McGill Union House Committee to be handed in to Secretary Students' Council by 6 p.m. to-night (Oct. 11). Nominations to be signed by at least 10 students of respective faculties. Elections on Thursday, Oct. 14th. Secretaries of Undergraduate Societies are requested to get in touch with Secretary Students' Council as soon as possible.

ORCHESTRA.

The first meeting of the Students' Orchestra will be held in the Union to-day, at 5 p.m.

A special invitation is extended to all Freshmen interested in music.

McGILL TRACK ATHLETES IN COMPETITION

University Sports Will Be Held Friday.

FULL HOLIDAY

All Further Entries Must Be Handed In By To-Morrow Night.

The University Sports will be held next Friday afternoon on the stadium. The governors have declared Friday a holiday, so that everyone may attend the games, and a record crowd is expected. There has been an unusually large number of men out on the track, and some very keen competition is expected.

All entries for the meet must be in by to-morrow night, in order to have the programmes printed for the meet, so that everyone should enter immediately. The games are open to all students registered at the University, so that all of the track men will be seen in action. It is expected that all of the men who competed in last Saturday's meet will again be seen on the track, while a large number from the upper years will swell the total number of competitors.

The contest between the various years should be very keen, especially so in the case of the Sophomore and Junior years.

The second year men had a walk-over last week, but they will have much more competition against the older men. The majority of last year's intercollegiate team are in the final years, and they will put up a hard fight to win the honor of having the most points.

An additional attraction is the contest for the individual all-round championship of the college. The governors have donated a medal for the best athlete at the University, and there is always keen rivalry. Last year the medal was won by R. W. Kennedy, and he is out to defend his honors, but is being challenged by several other track men. Especially noticeable is Don Foss, who collected 20 points last Saturday, while Bill Antiliff, on his showing this summer, is one of the best all-round men attending the college.

Among the men who will be out are: Kennedy, King, Gnaedinger, McLellan and McNider, for the Junior year; Antiliff, Farthing and Wells will be among the seniors' team, while the Sophomores will line up a smart squad including Hamilton, Hay, Mullen, Johnson and Foss. The Freshmen will have all the point winners from last week's meet on hand.

There is a lot of material in the college that has yet to be seen in action, and the meet will bring the new men in the limelight. There is lots of opportunity for newcomers, especially in the weights division, and it is hoped that many will be seen out this week.

In addition to the regular events, there will be some open to any registered amateurs. These will be the 220 yards, the medley relay and the discus throw.

The entry lists are in the dressing-room at the stadium and at the McGill Union. It is necessary to enter immediately.

There are vacancies for strings, wood wind and brass, and a cordial welcome is assured to all players.

As this is a business meeting, instruments will not be required.

Correspondence

The "Daily" is not responsible for the sentiments of letters published in the correspondence columns. Signed communications from graduates, undergraduates and members of the faculties will be placed in print if they are not of too great length. Correspondents are requested to observe the unwritten law of the newspaper office — that they write upon ONE side of the paper ONLY. No communications will be admitted in this column without the name of the writer being attached, not necessarily for PUBLICATION.

To the Editor, "McGill Daily."

Sir,— While not wishing to suggest a lack of preparedness on the part of the Students' Council, I would like to inquire whether it is not about time to get the Rooters' Club in action. The first game to be played on the Stadium will be seen in about a week, and still no announcement has been made regarding practices for the rooters.

Would it not be advisable to hire a competent bandmaster to get the Rooters' Band in shape? Rugby rallies, before and during the games, are promoters of the proper spirit for both team and students.

No doubt the Council has already made plans. The students are waiting to hear them.

Sincerely,
RAH-RAH

R. V. C. NOTES

Y. W. C. A.

The Y.W.C.A. reception to the new women students of McGill took place on Saturday afternoon in the R.V.C. The guests were received by Miss Hurlbatt and Miss Edith Barnes, president of the Y.W.C.A. Miss Hamilton, Student Secretary for the east, was also present. After tea was served, Miss Cox sang, accompanied by the Misses Cameron, Birkett and Slack. Dancing then was the order of the day until the gathering came to an end with "Hall Alma Mater" and the National Anthem.

R. V. C. '21.

A meeting of R.V.C. '21 will be held to-day (October 11), at one o'clock, in the Common Room.

TURNOUT GOOD AT THE COURTS ON SATURDAY

Play Was Well Worth Watching.

RATINGS CHANGED.

All the Contestants Seem To Be Showing Keen Rivalry.

Saturday afternoon was again a busy one for the tennis courts, in spite of the fact that some of the players were not present. The football match and the freshmen-sophomore sports did not influence the attendance at the courts to any extent. Some of the games of doubles which were played were really first class tennis and well worth watching. The two new men, Crocker and Wright, seem to be getting used to the courts and should be in the best of form by the end of next week. In the early part of the afternoon, Clyde Ramsey played two sets with Dr. Cleveland, the Alumni representative of the club, and an old member of the team. Ramsey won comparatively easily although his opponent is recognized as being one of the best players in the city. A match which proved rather a surprise was that between Roy and Douglas. Roy managed to win by making use of his drives which are fast and as a rule well placed. Douglas played a good game but seemed to be a little off his form. Alec Parker seemed to be playing very well during the afternoon, and has improved greatly from last year. In fact all the last year players have improved a great deal.

The executive have re-arranged the tennis ladder to a certain extent. The ladder is the rating of the various players in Class A. The present standing of these members is as follows:

|            |           |
|------------|-----------|
| C. Ramsey  | Douglas   |
| Bernard    | Carlyle   |
| Crocker    | Fortin    |
| Wright     | Farthing  |
| Claxton    | McTaggart |
| Ward       | Chisholm  |
| O'Halloran | Wardrope  |
| Parker     | K. Ramsey |
| Roy        | McCarthy  |

The first round in the tennis tournament has progressed very little, but positively must be finished by Tuesday afternoon in order to leave time for playing the other rounds. It has been decided not to have a doubles tournament on account of lack of courts on which to play the games. Every member in the tournament is requested to play his game off as soon as possible in order that the play will not be carried on to the end of the month.

LIBRARY NOTES.

There will appear every week notes and short items of news regarding the Library and various phases of its activity.

The Librarian and the Library Assistants wish to take this opportunity of welcoming back former students and of extending to first year men and women an invitation to make full use of the opportunities which the Library offers them.

During the summer several changes have been made in the re-arrangement of books. In the main Reading Room the reference books have been extended along the whole of the wall at the left of the entrance. On the opposite side of the room, next to the Delivery Desk, are the shelves devoted to the University Book Club. These books are not for the use of students. Next to these are the most recent additions to the Library, and beyond the fireplace are arranged the books reserved for reading in the different courses.

In the Periodical Room have been temporarily placed the thousand books and periodicals belonging to the Emma Shearer Wood Library of Ornithology which is being presented to the University by Colonel Casey A. Wood, M.D., as the most complete collection of books on this subject in the Dominion of Canada and one which will eventually excel any similar collections on the continent.

Attention is called to the exhibit, in the Gallery leading to the Law Library, of Parts of the Book which was prepared in connection with the Summer Library School. Adjoining this is an exhibit of some of the rare books and manuscripts owned by the Library. The entrance is through the Professor's Room.

The attention of Law students is called to the additional reading room now provided for their use and to the fact that all the Law Reports are now arranged on shelves in this room.

New call slips have been provided for use in getting books from the Stack. Please use the white slips for books needed in the Reading Room only and pink slips for books drawn for home use.

A suggestion book is kept at the Desk and students are cordially invited to make use of it.

If you have any difficulty in using the Catalogue do not hesitate to ask the assistant in charge for help. Suggestions regarding the effective use of the Catalogue and other Library aids will be placed in the students' hands in the course of a few days.

OFF-SIDES.

Number one for McGill and two weeks left in which to prepare for the Toronto Varsity fixture which is scheduled to be played at the Queen City on Saturday, October 23. Queens and Varsity play at Kingston next Saturday.

The first game of the season against Queens is always regarded with a certain amount of apprehension by McGill rugby enthusiasts and it was with a sigh of satisfaction that the Red and White team left the field as victors on Saturday.

It was Flanagan's big day against Queens and the shabby centre half certainly covered himself with glory. His kicking and running left nothing to be desired.

Nicholson and "Punch" Parkins had a busy afternoon going down under Flanagan's long "boots," but the speedy outsiders stayed with the ship and got their man every time. The work of these two players was a feature of the match.

Carl Forbes was the only serious casualty. He received a knock in the cheek which cracked the bone and will probably mean that he will be out of the game for the season. Forbes took Timmins place at centre scrummage when Leo received a kick in the eye, and the sturdy spare played stellar rugby during his stay on the field. "Bones" Little replaced Forbes but had little time in which to show his worth.

"Boo" Anderson caused the Presbyterians a lot of worry and in this he

BADGE RULES.

Every year there is some trouble about the use of non-regulation uniforms and crests about the campus and stadium. The trouble is only with the freshmen, who are ignorant of the regulations concerning the use of "foreign" badges.

It is only natural that the freshmen should be proud of the prep. school from which they have graduated, but, once they have become students at McGill, they are bound by regulation to wear no other crest but that of Old McGill.

The ruling concerning the use of badges is as follows: "The promiscuous use of non-regulation uniforms and the wearing of 'foreign' badges on the campus, or at any University athletic contest, is prohibited, and if this offence be persisted in after due warning, such offender may be debarred from participation in University athletics until reinstated by the Athletic Association."

had the full support of Captain "Dud" Ross. The skipper of the McGill squad bids fair to make this his best year at college football.

Queen's rooters filled the bleachers, but after the first half they had little inducement to cheer. Their chief support came from the ladies of the college who gave the college yells with vim from the precincts of the grandstand.

McGill had its little quota of rooters including Buster Reid, Dr. Joe Kennedy, H. R. Morgan, Major Stuart Forbes, "Blondy" Hawkins, Dr. A. S. Lamb and the officials and spares of the team. They gave several mighty yells for Old McGill.

Unfortunately the melee at the end of the game marred the afternoon's sport. However the affair stopped as quickly as it had started, but not before the old wallop had been exchanged.

After the game Queens entertained the squad at a bumper banquet at which most of the players, who were not suffering from the effects of the afternoon's tussle, attended.

The following from "The Varsity," the official paper at Toronto University—"University must remember that our doubtful opponent, 'Old Shags,' is there with the goods."

Normie Wallace received a nasty jar in the second half, "Boo" Anderson taking over the key position.

R.M.C. cadets were out in force and were loud in their cheers for their former comrade Jeff Russell, and the elongated half certainly gave his soldier friends plenty of opportunity to expand their lungs.

R.M.C. seconds and the Queen's junior team played a curtain raiser, the cadets winning by a score of 23 to 2. McGill seconds did not play on Saturday as was reported in a contemporary.

Working of the new rules was watched closely by the rugby enthusiasts and on the whole they did not seem to deaden the game, although the penalty rules seemed to work a hardship on the offending team that was just a little severe.

Toronto Varsity and Old Boys played their annual fixture at the Queen City on Saturday afternoon, the Intercollegiate team defeating the graduates by a score of 14 to 6.

DENTAL SOCIETY.

The meeting of the Dental Society which was to be addressed by Dr. Thornton, Dean of the Faculty, tonight, has been postponed, owing to the fact that the speaker will be unable to address the assembly. Further information will be forthcoming later.

Nearly $20,000 was paid for a single stamp at a recent Paris sale. The stamp was a twopenny indigo Mauritius, dated 1847.

COMMITTEE TO HOLD CANVASS

Interesting Courses To Be Taken For Bible Study.

The Bible Study Committee of the McGill Y.M.C.A. will hold a campaign supper at Strathcona Hall at 6.30 tonight, to inaugurate a canvassing drive with a view to interesting the student body of the University in the courses of Bible Study to be taken up this year.

The texts to be followed by the groups will be: "Jesus in the Records," by Dr. Sharman; "Social Principles of Jesus," by Dr. Rauschenbusch; and "The Manhood of the Master," by Dr. Fosdick. In following these courses, the idea is to start from the conviction that we know nothing about Jesus, and to build up from the evidence of the Bible alone, whatever conclusions we may reach. These courses are in no way a series of lectures, nor are they bound by dogma and preconceived and dictatorial theology; they are rather a spontaneous expression, in free and open discussion, of the facts that appear to the student from a broad and unbiased study of the life and teachings of Jesus. These studies are not "Sunday-school lessons," and they involve no "preaching." The opinions of others will never be enforced on the individual student at these classes.

It is hoped to make a thorough canvass of the first year in all faculties during the coming week. To this end, lists will be distributed to the committee and its fellows who are undertaking the campaign, from 7 to 7.30. At 8, Dr. Ernest Best, Professor of Religious Education at McGill, will speak for about fifteen minutes on the purposes and aim of the courses offered.

SOPHOMORES OUTCLASSED FRESHMEN IN TRACK MEET

Good Time Made In Mile By Freshman — Don Foss, Individual Winner Of Meet — Good Material Amongst Newcomers Brought Out.

The Freshman-Sophomore meet which was staged last Saturday afternoon in the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium, was a greater success than had been anticipated. The turnout of men was very encouraging to the club officials, who wished to know just what kind of a showing the students of the first two years could make in a track meet.

While no records were broken, some of the events were finished in decidedly good time, and it is thought that many of the competitors of Saturday will, with a little more training, be showing such form as will entitle them to take part in the intercollegiate meet which is soon to be held in Toronto.

The weather was ideal, and the crowd, which was estimated at 600, was enthusiastic during the entire afternoon. The events were run off in record time, no delay being experienced between numbers. At intervals, results of the intercollegiate Rugby game in Kingston were announced amid ringing cheers.

Among the competitors were four men from Macdonald College. One of these, Valterpool, a Sophomore at that institution, showed decidedly good form in the sprints. He secured a place in each of the two events in which he was entered.

In the hundred yards he came second in his heat and third in the final, while in the two-hundred he ran second in both the heat and the final. With practice, this man should prove a valuable addition to the McGill track team. Van Wagner, the "Varsity" track coach, intends going to the St. Anne de Bellevue college for several days this week to get the promising material there in the best of condition.

The second year men scored an easy victory, the final score being 95 to 30. The individual winner of the meet was Don Foss, the big second year Science student. He secured four first places, winning the hammer throw, the running high jump, putting the shot and throwing the discus, thus scoring twenty of his team's ninety-five points.

Next in merit to him was F. Consiglio, a newcomer to McGill, and one who has been very successful in High School sports. Besides getting two second places, he came in ahead in the hundred and twenty yard hurdles, piling up a score of eleven points. Close behind him came D. M. Johnson, who had no trouble in winning the hundred and the two-hundred yards events for a total score of ten points. Johnson came third in the hurdles, but was disqualified for knocking down three of the obstructions.

The events and the results are published below. The symbols S. or F. denote the class to which the man belongs.

Pole Vault.

1. Craik, S.; 2. Tremaine, F.; 3. Nelligan, F. Height, 9 feet.

1st Heat—1. Johnson, S.; 2. Valterpool, S.; 3. Amaron, S. Time, 10-2.

2nd Heat—1. Forrest, S.; 2. Warren, F.; 3. Buzzell, F. Time, 11-1.

3rd Heat—1. Usher, F.; 2. MacLaren, S.; 3. Smith, F. Time, 11-4.

Final—1. Johnson, S.; 2. Forrest, S.; 3. Valterpool, S. Time, 10-3.

Half Mile.

1. Frederick, S.; 2. Stephen, S.; 3. Fraser, S. Time 2 min. 10 sec.

Throwing the 16-lb. Hammer.

1. Foss, S.; 2. Amaron, S.; 3. Martineau, F. Distance, 79 ft. 5 1-2 in.

Running High Jump.

In this event Foss jumped within three inches of the intercollegiate record. At the time this took place he was competing in one of the weight events, and it is expected that with this event alone he can appreciably better his figure of Saturday.

1. Foss, S.; 2. Faith, S.; 3. Read, S. Height, 5 ft. 5 in.

Putting 16-lb. Shot.

1. Foss, S.; 2. Consiglio, F.; 3. Dickie, F. Distance, 34 ft. 10 1-2 in.

220 Yards.

1st Heat—1. Johnson, S.; 2. Valterpool, S.; 3. Warren, F. Time, 24-1.

2nd Heat—1. Amaron, S.; 2. Foss, F.; 3. Johnson, S.; 2. Valterpool, S.; 3. Amaron, S. Time, 24-1.

In the second heat of the above event Foss lost one shoe at the start. Notwithstanding this, he completed the distance with one shoe and one sock, and finished second in the heat.

Running Broad Jump.

1. Forrest, S.; 2. Graham, S.; 3. Rolleston, S. Distance, 18 ft. 5 in.

One Mile.

1. Legg, S.; 2. Simpson, S.; 3. Perron, S. Time, 4 min. 53 sec.

This time is twenty-one and three-fifths seconds slower than the intercollegiate record time, and should be bettered by the McGill runners before the intercollegiate meet takes place.

Throwing the Discus.

1. Foss, S.; 2. Consiglio, F.; 3. Nelligan, F. Distance, 80 ft. 3 in.

One-hundred Yards Hurdles.

1. Consiglio, F.; 2. Gile, F. Time, 20-3.

In this event Johnson ran third, but was disqualified for kicking over three hurdles.

Quarter Mile.

1. Livingston, S.; 2. Stephen, S.; 3. Carter, F. Time, 61-6.

Three Miles.

This event was closely contested and was won by Creelman, who sprinted from behind into the lead.

The finish of the race provided some excitement, as both Antliffe and he had been running together for the full twelve laps.

1. Creelman, F.; 2. Antliffe, S.; 3. Simpson, S. Time, 18 min. 21-2 sec.

The last event to be run off was the relay race between the two classes. This resulted in a win for the team representing the second year, and composed of Johnson, Frederick, Bowen and Fraser.

The Freshman class relied on Smith, Bokerford, Carter and Warren.

Much valuable information about the men in the first two years was derived during the meet, and many of them with the next few weeks' training to their credit should be sure of places on the intercollegiate team.

RED AND WHITE
TERIAN OUTFIT

the doughty back proved a spear-head that started plenty of trouble for the Tri-color.

Russell did not have a great deal to do, but managed to get in several long runs, on one occasion dodging forty yards through a broken field of Presbyterians. The old warrior, "Dud" Ross, was in his element, and has seldom been seen to such advantage on the gridiron, while Nicholson and Parkins got their men under every punt.

For Queen's, McKelvey at inside played a strong game. He continually bucked through the McGill line for yards, and broke up several plays, and was deadly in his tackling.

Evans, who replaced O'Gorman at quarter, showed plenty of "pep," and directed the team from the key position with good generalship. Ellis, who scored for Queen's, proved one of the hardest men in the Tri-color line to stop.

Flanagan kicked off for McGill at the beginning of the game, and after a return punt, the Red and White went for two downs when Flanagan kicked for a rouge. After several futile efforts to buck through the Tri-color defence, McGill defended its own line for a short time, but sent the play back to Queen's line on runs by Wallace and Russell, and bucks by Cope and Notman. Cope finally going over for a try which was converted.

Queen's then started its bucking, and Evans and McKelvey took the pigskin forty yards to the McGill line. Timmins was cut across the eye and was forced to give way to Carl Forbes.

JUNIOR SQUAD SCORED 16-7 AGAINST N.D.G.

Loyola Unable To Score Until Last Quarter.

LOYOLA GROUNDS.

Clark Hurt At Work-Out Was Unable To Play.

The McGill Junior team defeated Loyola at the latter's grounds in Notre Dame de Grace Saturday afternoon. The final score was 16-7.

McGill scored as follows:

1st quarter — Rutherford scored a touch.

2nd quarter — Falconer scored a touch and Whitall converted.

4th quarter — Mallison scored a touch.

Loyola scored a touch in the 3rd period and got two to the line in the fourth.

The line-up was as follows:

Evans carried the ball to McGill's ten-yard line, and on the second down Ellis went over. Later Ryan kicked behind the goal line, and Flanagan was forced dead with the ball. Quarter ended, McGill, 7; Queen's, 6.

In the second period, Ryan and Flanagan exchanged kicks, the McGill half gaining on the boot and sending the ball to Queen's twenty-yard territory. Notman bucked for yards, and then Cope went through the middle for his second try of the game, which was not converted. Russell fumbled Queen's kick, but recovered the pigskin and ran 45 yards through the Tri-color squad. Flanagan kicked for a rouge, which trick he duplicated a few minutes later, Nicholson and Parkins bringing Ryan down behind the Presbyterian line on both occasions. Queen's kept the play out for the remainder of the period, when McKelvey bucked through three successive times for yards. Half time, score—McGill, 14; Queen's, 6.

Wallace was replaced at quarter by Anderson in the third quarter, Wilson going to the half line. For five minutes play was kept just inside Queen's territory, then Flanagan made a fake kick and dodging around the end used the straight arm to ward off his would-be tacklers and ended up after a forty-five yard sprint. Anderson and Ross bucked for yards, bringing the play to the ten-yard line, where Flanagan got possession and dropped a beautiful goal. Towards the end of the quarter, "Boo" Anderson faked a pass, and brought the ball to the fifteen-yard line. Flanagan attempted another drop, but McKelvey broke through on him. Not to be outdone, the snappy McGill half side-stepped his opponent and made for the Queen's line around the right end, and succeeded in grounding the ball in the corner. Third quarter ended, McGill, 22; Queen's, 6.

The last quarter was all to McGill, Flanagan scoring twice on rouges, while Anderson put five more points to the score with a try gained by going through Queen's centre. Flanagan converted, and later had two more points added when he kicked to Bowman, who ran the ball out from behind, but was caught by Ross and forced to save when pushed back across the line, the referee giving the extra point for the rouge.

Company Sergeant-Major MacKenzie and Company Sergeant-Major Walker, of the Royal Military College, handled the whistles and proved most acceptable officials.
